J.L. Wallace ‘Contractor of the Year’

FORT MYERS, Fla. (September 29, 2010) – J.L. Wallace Inc. was honored as ‘2010 Contractor of the Year’ by the Lee Building Industry Association at the annual Summit Awards dinner on Saturday, September 25th. The Summit Awards, created by the Commercial Contractors Council of the Lee BIA, recognizes excellence in the commercial construction industry.

In addition, J.L. Wallace received the Summit Award for Bunche Beach Preserve in Fort Myers as Best Public Works Project in the $1-$2 million category. This new park is an eco-friendly project that included extensive site work, restrooms, boardwalks, kayak launch and fishing pier. The park is self-sustaining, meaning no conventional electric or water utilities are needed. Design services were provided by Conceptus, David Douglas and Associates and Andrys Architects.

For the Best Church Project in the $1-$2 million category J.L. Wallace received a Merit Award for St. Katharine Drexel Catholic Church in Cape Coral. This project included two multi-use buildings totaling 11,200 SF and was designed by Jason P. Tramonte Architect, Inc. of Fort Myers.

Based in Fort Myers, Fla., J.L. Wallace has provided general contracting, design/build and construction management services in Southwest Florida since 1997. The company specializes in commercial projects, including structures for retail, industrial, institutional and office use. For more information, visit www.jlwallaceinc.com or call (239) 437-1111.
