J.L. Wallace Has Begun Renovations for Three Lee County Schools

FORT MYERS, FL. (June 25, 2013) – J.L. Wallace Inc. has begun renovations at three Lee County Schools: Lake Middle School, Caloosa Middle School and Tropic Isles Elementary School. Awarded this contract by the Lee County School Board in mid-June, J.L. Wallace plans to complete construction by July 15, 2013.

Renovations at all three schools consist of removal and replacement of quarry tile in the schools' kitchens. Since the work will need to be complete before school is back in session for the fall, J.L. Wallace is committed to a timely completion of this job.

Ted Gadoury is serving as Project Manager with Noel Miranda as Project Manager Assistant and Ken Furtado as Project Superintendent.

Based in Fort Myers, Fla., J.L. Wallace has provided general contracting, design/build and construction management services in Southwest Florida since 1997. The company specializes in commercial projects, including structures for retail, industrial, institutional and office use.
