J.L. Wallace Begins Work on the Area's First Orange Leaf Frozen Yogurt Store

FORT MYERS, FLA. (March 23, 2012) – The fun, funky Orange Leaf Yogurt will soon make its debut in southwest Florida. J.L. Wallace has started construction of the area's first franchise location, to be opened at the Miromar Outlet Stores, 10801 Corkscrew Rd. in the Estero area.

Missouri businessman Sam Coryell is owner of the franchise. J.L. Wallace is performing the build out of space for the new Orange Leaf Yogurt in the food court at Miromar.

The work involves installation of several self-serve frozen yogurt machines, a toppings bar, and exterior chiller equipment. The work should be completed around the end of May. J.L. Wallace will also be building other Orange Leaf locations in southwest Florida in the coming months.

Orange Leaf Yogurt is headquartered in Oklahoma and has a strong presence in the Midwest and Northeast. To date, six franchises are open in Florida, but the Miromar location is the first on the Gulf coast.
