J.L. Wallace Hires Two Superintendents

FORT MYERS, FL. (August 28, 2013) – Jim Ruby and Jeff Griffith have re-joined J.L. Wallace Inc. as superintendents, according to company president Jerry Wallace. In this role, they will be responsible for supervision of all phases of the construction process from start to finish.

Ruby brings over 30 years of project supervision experience to his new position as superintendent on the Bonita Isles Amenities project. Griffith also brings over 30 years of experience to his new position as superintendent on the Verandah Fitness Center Renovation and Expansion project. Both Ruby and Griffith worked for J.L. Wallace in the past and have returned after a brief change to other companies.

Based in Fort Myers, Fla., J.L. Wallace has provided general contracting, design/build and construction management services in Southwest Florida since 1997. The company specializes in commercial projects, including structures for retail, industrial, institutional and office use. For more information, visit www.jlwallaceinc.com or call (239) 437-1111.
