J.L. Wallace Employees approved for Wal-Mart Remodels

FORT MYERS, FL. (August 11, 2011) – J.L. Wallace employees, Ted Gadoury, Project Manager and Ken Furtado, Superintendent, have successfully completed Wal-Mart's training programs for Stormwater Compliance, an EPA approved program, and Remodel Construction.

The Wal-Mart Training Certificates are awarded to those construction professionals who have successfully completed the Wal-Mart classroom training programs held in Bentonville, Arkansas and followed by independent testing. In recent years J.L. Wallace has remodeled Sam's Clubs, a division of Wal-Mart, in Fort Myers and Port Charlotte.

Based in Fort Myers, Fla., J.L. Wallace has provided general contracting, design/build and construction management services in Southwest Florida since 1997. The company specializes in commercial projects, including structures for retail, industrial, institutional and office use. For more information, visit www.jlwallaceinc.com or call (239) 437-1111.
