FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

J.L. Wallace builds roadways, walkways and amenities at Wild Turkey Strand Preserve / Park

FORT MYERS, FL. (June 6, 2012) – J.L. Wallace, Inc. has construction of entry roads and public amenities well under way at Wild Turkey Strand Preserve, a Conservation 20/20 project. The preserve is located off Rod & Gun Club Road in East Lee County.

The construction work will incorporate new roadways, parking, site development, wood fencing, flexi-pave walkways, boardwalks, observation platforms, bathroom building and picnic pavilion. The project is expected to be completed in August 2012. More fascinating information about the background and the remaining WWII cultural resources (BAAF gunnery training ranges) and wetland/wildlife in the preserve may be found on the Lee County website.

Ted Gadoury is serving as project manager with Ted C. Gadoury as superintendent and Robbyn Spears as project manager assistant. Engineering services are being provided by Ensite - Kevin L. Irwin Ecologist.

Based in Fort Myers, Fla., J.L. Wallace has provided general contracting, design/build and construction management services in Southwest Florida since 1997.
